

A Non-Trivial Pursuit

Library Game Nights as a place to de-stress with campus partners

GEHALSN Creating welcoming & inclusive spaces

- Helpful staff available all night
- Food food food
- Live prize drawings with communal celebration of the winners
- Variety of games for every type of gamers – from hard-core strategy to collaborative games and party games to childhood classics.

Partnering

- League of Geeks
- MU Meeples
- UNIDOS
- EBTD games program
- Office of Residence Life
- MAP
- Family Fund
- MUL DEI Committee
- Role-Playing Guild
- Game Design Club

Thou shalt have fun!

Award-winning marketing campaign used mixed-reality graphics to catch student attention and to keep our events light hearted.

Our Future

- Pop-up games night tub
- MU Meeples to showcase DEI games for the Universal Day of Culture

Our next games night
April 15th @ King Library!

GEHALSN We want students to see themselves in our games!

We invest in DEI games through grants and add games students request.

“A senior thanked us for holding the events on her way out of the final spring games night. She said she’d attended several times and always had fun and learned new games, but she especially appreciated being able to decompress from the pressure, especially near finals week.”

GEHALSN Diverse events

- Fundraiser for children’s hospital
- Accessible card holders
- Traditional Mexican games
- Made@Miami orientation event
- Late Night Study Break games
- Games at staff event

Credits

We jokingly call ourselves the...
Library Games Knights of the Roundtable

Miami University Librarians:

- Cara Calabrese
- Abigail Morgan
- Roger Justus
- Jerry Yarnetsky