MIAMI UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES (OH)

ER&L 2018

What is Transfer?

A voluntary code for journal publishers containing best practices for transferring and receiving journals.

Governed by a standing committee of librarians, publishers & other intermediaries

Why is it important?

Journals change publishers frequently

Lack of communication during transfers = disruptions in supply chain

Loss of library subscription access

What does Transfer offer?

Welcome to the Enhanced Transfer Alerting Service

The NISO Transfer Code of Practice (<http://www.niso.org/workrooms/transfer/>) is a set of voluntary best practices for scholarly publishers to ensure that when journals transfer between parties the process occurs with minimum disruption and that the content remains accessible. The Code was developed under the auspices of UKSG by a Working Group composed of librarians, publishers and subscription agents. The Transfer Code calls for Endorsing Publishers (http://www.niso.org/workrooms/transfer/transfer_publishers/) to provide alerts about journal transfers.

To help publishers and to make it easy for librarians and readers to be notified of journal transfers and search previous alerts, UKSG has collaborated with JUSP, JISC and Cranfield University to create this Enhanced Transfer Alerting Service.

For complete information about the NISO Transfer Code of Practice please visit the NISO website (<http://www.niso.org/workrooms/transfer/>).
